THE TRANSFORMATIONAL TRAINER FOR THE TIMES

OUR WORLD HAS CHANGED
THAT'S GREAT NEWS!

AUTHOR & EDUCATOR

The deception runs DEEP from the entities we were conditioned to trust. Daily, it's clearer how they've pitted us against each other with fabricated narratives to divide us and to create fear.

WHAT NOW? NOW, we develop the MINDSET to not fear which also equips us mentally & emotionally with the clarity & stamina to start righting their wrongs upon us WITHOUT THEM, starting with OURSELVES!

BIO

Zara's course of life was determined while getting her psychology degree upon realizing the most important part, the origin -- the original premise of psychology, had been intentionally omitted from the whole practice of psychology. Since then she's taught thousands The Art of Understanding Thoughts and Behaviors, without the need for diagnoses and drugs. She's authored 3 personal development publications and is thrilled that cornerstones of our world are dismantling because we get to rebuild without divisive governmental controls.

PROBLEM IS TOO BIG FOR PEOPLE?

"That's what they want you to believe! We don't need to fight the government. That's energy taken away from rebuilding ourselves, each other and the healthier new world in unity that we'll prepare for the generations to come. Besides, this way is far more effective for all. The fall is happening, and the fallout will peter out as we RISE." - Zara Green
